Numb. 1885

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday October 1. to Thursday October 4. 1683.

Whitehall, October 3.

THe following Addreſſes having been preſented to His Majeſty, His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Officers of the Militia for the County of Northumberland.

WE Your Majeſties moſt humble Loyal Subjects from the bottom of our hearts, deteſting and abhorring the Deviliſh Fanatical Caballing Practices of all ſuch as deſerve and have lately brought themſelves to their Fatal end, for Treaſonably Conſpiring againſt the Lives of the beſt of Princes, Your Sacred Majeſty, and of Your Deareſt and moſt dutiful Brother, the beſt of Subjects, ſo againſt the beſt of Governments in Church and State; For the Miraculous preſervation of Which, do humbly offer up our Praiſes and Prayers to the Almighty. And being fully informed and ſatisfied of the truth of this Helliſh Conſpiracy by Your Majeſties Royal Declaration, doubt not but ſuch care will be taken to prevent Rebellion for the future, by Your Majeſties Princely Wiſdom, that the late horrid Scene of Blood acted upon our late Martyr'd King, of Bleſſed Memory, nor the preſent Machinations of Bloody Miſcreants may never be thought of, but to lay their own Confuſion and Damnation before their Eyes, by which they may know You live by Authority, and not their Mercy; Then our dreadful Fears will be certainly converted to the joyful hopes, that the deviliſh thoughts of Traiterous Conſults will never again be pronounced by the Factious Tongues of Seditious Aſſociating Synods; Then Your Majeſties Royal Prerogative, Sacred in Your Anceſtors, the Lineal Deſcent, Liberty and Property, together with the beſt of Religions, as by Law Eſtabliſhed, will (by the bleſſing of Divine Providence) upon Your endeavours, be preſerved. To which end we Proſtrate our Lives and Fortunes at Your Majeſties Feet, Zealouſly importuning the great God of Heaven for Your Majeſties long and happy Reign, That Monarchy in theſe Your Majeſties Dominions, may continue to the Worlds end.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſties moſt Loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgy-Maſters of Your Majeſty's Antient Borough of Weſtbury, in the County of Wilts.

Dread Soveraign,

WE Your Majeſties Loyal and Obedient Subjects, being deeply ſenſible of Gods great goodneſs and mercy, in miraculouſly preſerving Your Sacred Majeſty, and Royal Brother, from the rage and cruelty of Blood thirſty and deceitful Men; We do chearfully Congratulate Your wonderful Preſervation, and therein our own ſafety and ſecurity; and do with hearts full of thankfulneſs, bleſs Almighty God for the ſame.

And with unfeigned grief, we do afflict our ſelves, that any of us ſhould give our conſents, for the Electing ſuch a Repreſentative for this Borough, who is now Convicted by the Grand-Jury, at the laſt Seſſions in the Old-Bayly, for being a Conſpirator in that horrid Treaſon, whoſe Guilt cauſeth him to fly from Juſtice.

And we do hereby aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will never hereafter, make choice of any Perſon to ſerve in Parliament, that is any way ſuſpected to be knowing, or abetting, to that deviliſh Deſign againſt Your Royal Perſon, Illuſtrious Brother, and happy Government, (which was in danger to be overthrown by the Excluders of the Rightful Heir) but ſhall be of approved Loyalty, and of faithful Integrity to the preſent Government in Church and State. And as Loyal and good Subjects, we ſhall ever pray for Your Majeſties Safety, Your long and happy Reign over us, and for the utter Confuſion of all Your Enemies.

Dated the One and thirtieth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majeſties Reign.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Newnham, in the County of Glocester, &c.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

TO believe that we Your moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects, holding our ſelves Obliged, as much as in us lies, to maintain and uphold the Antient Cuſtoms, Rights, and Privileges of this Town, which our Predeceſſors and Anceſtors have a long time enjoyed; Do eſteem it our greateſt Honor and Happineſs, that we have not one Schiſmatical Perſon, Seditious Inhabitant, or Ill-affected Member to Church or State, within this our Society: by which means we have unanimouſly undertaken to proclaim to the whole World the truth and reality of our Loyalty and Obedience to Your moſt Sacred Majeſty, and lawful Succeſſors, for ever; eſpecially conſidering the great danger to which Your moſt Sacred Majeſty, with your Illuſtrious Brother, His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, have been of late expoſed, by the moſt Helliſh and Impious Machinations, Plots and Conſpiracies, beyond the Example of former times, or parallel of Ages that are paſt.

And we do hereby profeſs and declare our juſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of all, and all manner of Treaſonable practices, Plots, and Contrivances againſt Your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, Crown, Dignity, or Lawful Succeſſor; further aſſuring your Majeſty, that we are and ſhall be ready and willing to obey and ſerve Your Majeſty with our Eſtate and Fortunes, Life and Limbs, Prayers and well-wiſhes that the King of Kings may multiply his Bleſſings upon You, granting You a long, happy, and proſperous Reign over us, to the glory of his Name, the confuſion of Your Enemies, the continuance of Comfort, Safety, and Happineſs to the Church and State wherein we live, for which

We ſhall never ceaſe to pray, &c.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Dread Soveraign,

WE Your Majeſties Loyal Subjects, of the County of Worceſter, Do with all Humility beſeech your Majeſty, Graciouſly to accept our heartieſt Congratulation of Your Majeſties, and Royal Brother's late Miraculous Deliverance from the moſt horrid Conſpiracies of the ungracious and ungrateful Villains; And though when we ſerioully reflect how far their Cruelty would have extended, we cannot but Congratulate to our ſelves, our own Preſervation; We do at the ſame inſtant aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall not eſteem our Lives and Fortunes of any value, whenever in competition with Your Majeſties Safety: To which aſſurance we can only add our moſt fervent Prayers, That God will ſtill continue to Infatuate the Counſels, detect the Devices, and defeat the Deſigns of all ſuch as ſhall for the future adventure to diſturb your Majeſties, or the Kingdoms peace and quiet.

Dread Soveraign,

We Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, the Grand-Inqueſt for the ſaid County, at the Aſſizes held at Worceſter, the 30th day of Auguſt, 1683. Do heartily Concur in this humble Addreſs; And do preſume to render Your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for Your late Declaration, ſo highly ſatisfactory to all Your Majeſties Loyal Subjects, in the ſincere Scheme of that moſt Execrable Conſpiracy. Aſſuring suring Your Majesty, we shall at all times be ready to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in defence of Your Majesties Sacred Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in its due and Lineal course of Descent.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Basingstoke in this County of Southampton.

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, seriously considering the Duty and Allegiance we owe unto Your Sacred Majesty, and the Submission and Obedience that is due to the Laws we live under (which Your Majesty hath most graciously declared, shall be the Rules and Measures of Your Government) cannot without great Horror and amazement of mind, reflect on all such as have conspired the Death and Destruction of the one, or alteration of the other. And do give God Almighty thanks for the great Deliverances of Your Majesty, and Your Royal and Dearest Brother the Duke of York, from the Hellish Conspiracies and Machinations of base and malitious men. And do hereby assure Your Majesty, that we do utterly detest and abhor all Treasons and Traiterous Conspiracies whatsoever; and shall be ready with our hearts and hands to defend Your Majesties Royal Person, Your Heirs and lawful Successors, against the Restless and Rebellious Designs of malevolent and wicked Persons, and shall daily pray that your Majesty may have a long and prosperous Reign over us; and that Religion, and Learning, and Vertue, may be the Glory of Your Kingdoms.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, High-Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, head Burgesses, Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of Your Majesties ancient Corporation of Maldon in the County of Essex.

WE your Majesties most dutiful and most obedient Subjects, do with unspeakable joy and gladness congratulate your Majesties safe and miraculous Preservation from the villainous hands of wicked and blood-thirsty men, who (under the specious Pretences of securing Religion, Liberty, and Property, which they slily and falsely suggested to the People to be in danger) would have most inhumanely and barbarously assassinated Your most Sacred Person, and your Dearest Brother James Duke of York, and thereby involved these Nations in a bloody and barbarous Civil War, and have turned the best of Governments into Confusion and Anarchy; but we do hope that the Divine Providence which hath hitherto most miraculously preserved your most Sacred Person, will still continue his mercy towards you, and ever defend you against all your Enemies. And now, Great Sir, we do humbly crave leave to prostrate our selves at your Royal Feet, beseeching your most Sacred Majesty to be assured that our Lives and Fortunes shall always most chearfully and willingly be exposed in the defence of our Dread Soveraign Lord the King, his Heirs and lawful Successors, and the Government in Church and State, as now by Law established, against all your Enemies whatsoever. And we do further beg leave to assure your Majesty, that when in your Princely Wisdom you shall please to call your People together by their Representatives in Parliament, we will use our utmost indeavours to send such Members to Parliament, as shall not be Factious, or affected with popularity, but such as shall comply with your Majesty in all your reasonable demands.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Grand-Jury sworn to enquire for the Body of the County of Salop. Though we have most of us in our several Capacities made bold to trouble Your Majesty with our sense of that barbarous Conspiracy, against Your Sacred Majesty and Dearest Brother, being now more fully acquainted by Your Majesties Declaration of that Damnable Design, do in the behalf of our selves, and whole County of Salop, declare our thanks to Almighty God, for his miraculous delivery of Your Majesty from the Bloody hands of those merciless Assassinates, and this flourishing Kingdom from ruine and confusion. And we do with all sincerity profess our Detestation of all such Treasonable Contrivances, and Hellish Consults. And we do humbly assure Your Majesty that our hearts and hands, with our Lives and Fortunes shall ever be ready to defend Your Sacred Person, and lawful Successors, against all Conspiracies, Associations, and Attempts whatsoever.

Dated in Shrewsbury at the Assizes there held for the said County of Salop, the two and twentieth day of August in the Five and thirtieth year of Your Majesties Reign.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants, with the Younger Brethren, and the whole Fraternity of Masters and Pilots, Sea-men of the Trinity-house in Kingston upon Hull.

Humbly Sheweth,

THat we your Majesties most humble, Loyal, and obedient Subjects, calling to mind the great Mercy of Almighty God, vouchsafed to your Majesty and all your Kingdoms and Subjects in your Majesties most Happy Restauration, and the exceeding great Happiness, Freedom, and Prosperity we and all your Majesties Subjects have since enjoyed under your most Just, Prudent, and Pious Reign over us, cannot but with the greatest Horror and Detestation imaginable, admire at the Hellish Machinations of those wicked Persons, who having neither the fear of God before their Eyes, nor a sense of their own good, have been so bruitishly Devilish, as to conspire, not only the Destruction of your Majesties Sacred Person, and your Royal Brother, but also the Subversion of the Government both in Church and State, and this under the villainous pretence of Religion, and doing God and their Country Service, from which bloody and Traiterous Design it hath pleased Almighty God to deliver your Majesty.

We therefore in all humble manner crave your Majesties gracious acceptance of this our humble and hearty Address and Congratulation, and do express our great thankfulness to the Almighty for this his unspeakable Mercy, sincerely vowing our obedience, which we humbly conceive we can not do in better terms than the Law hath taught us. That we will bear Faith and true Allegiance to your Majesty, your Heirs and lawful Successors, and your Majesty and them defend to the utmost of our Power, against all Treasons and Traiterous Conspiracies and Attempts which we shall know or hear of; And this with our Lives and Fortunes both by Land and Sea, and in the mean time humbly beseeching Almighty God to bless your Royal Person, and to continue your Majesty with long Life and a Happy Reign over us here, and hereafter to Crown your Majesty with an eternal Crown of Glory.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Grand-Jury, at the Assizes held at Stafford, for Your Majesties County of Stafford, the Seven and twentieth day of August, 1683.

May it please your Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, having often and duely considered the manifold and great blessings of Almighty God, vouchsafed to this Nation by Your Majesties Reign over us, and the great happiness and peace we continually enjoy thereby; Cannot enough express the horror and amazement of our minds upon so often and undoubted proofs by your Majesties Declaration, and otherwise of that most wicked, hellish, and unparallel'd Conspiracy, contrived and designed against the Lives of your most Sacred Majesty, and your Dearest Brother, James, Duke of York; by Fanatical, Atheistical, and Desperate Villains, most palpably and apparently designing the toral Destruction and ruine of a now flourishing Church and Kingdom, and the erecting of Arbitrary Power. Therefore as Christians, and your Majesties most Loyal Subjects, we offer up unto Almighty God, our most solemn Thanks for His most signal and often repeated Providence in the Preservation of Your Royal Person. And most humbly crave leave to assure your Majesty, that (as we are in Duty bound) we are unanimously resolved to hazard our Lives and Fortunes, for the defence and preservation of Your Sacred Person, Your Heirs, and lawful Successors, and Government in Church and State, as now by Law Established, against all hellish Associations and Traiterous Conspiracies whatsoever.

We the High Sheriff and Justices of the Peace present heartily Concur with the Grand-Jury in this Address.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

Dread Soveraign,

WE your Majesties most humble and obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Steward, Aldermen, Bayliff, Serjeants, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Over in your County Palatine of Chester, humbly crave leave leave to proſtrate our ſelves at your Royal Feet, acknowledging the ineſtimable Bleſſing, which we, with all our Fellow-Subjects, have long enjoyed by your Majeſties Gracious Government both in Church and State, and do give hearty thanks to Almighty God for his Good Providence in this miraculous Deliverance of your Majeſties Royal Perſon, and your Deareſt Brother James Duke of York, from the late Execrable, Trayterous, and Diabolical Conſpiracy, humbly begging your moſt Gracious Majeſty to accept of our unfeigned Duty and Loyalty, and to command our Lives and Fortunes whenſoever they may be ſerviceable for the ſuppreſſing and deſtroying all ſuch Conſpiracies and Treaſonable Aſſociations againſt your Royal Perſon, your Heirs and lawful Succeſſors in the right Line, as becomes our Allegiance, Duty, and ſworn Fidelity. Which is all we have to offer, but only our daily Prayers to Almighty God, that he would continue his good Providence in preſerving your Majeſty from the hands of wicked and unreaſonable men. In Teſtimony whereof we have annexed our Common Seal, and ſubſcribed our Names this nineteenth day of Auguſt, in the Five and thirtieth year of your Majeſties Reign, (which God grant long continue) Annoq; Dom. 1683.

Whitehall, September 29. This day the following Addreſs from Lime was preſented to His Majeſty by Captain Gregory Alford, being introduced by the Right Honorable the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England, and the Earl of Bath. His Majeſty received it very graciouſly, and was pleaſed to ſay he knew Captain Alford's ſtedfaſt Loyalty; and commanded him to return his thanks to his Town of Lyme for their Loyal Addreſs.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Magiſtrates, Freemen and Free holders, and other Your Majeſties Loyal Subjects within the Town and Borough of Lyme Regis in the County of Dorſet.

Dread Soveraign,

WE Your Majeſties Loyal and Obedient Subjects, highly tranſported with joy to hear of Your Sacred Majeſties wonderful Deliverance, continued Preſervation and Safety, together with that of His Royal Highneſs Your Deareſt Brother, from the late diſcovered Plots and Secret Conſpiracies of Cruel, Wicked, and unreaſonable men of Fanatical and Atheiſtical Principles. And as much amazed with Horror, when we ſeriouſly conſider the evil Conſequences that would enſue, if ſuch Deviliſh Deſigns had taken effect. Do therefore bleſs and Praiſe the Almighty God who hath diſcovered and hitherto defeated, ſuch their deep and Damnable Conſults and Machinations. And we further aſſure Your Majeſty, that from our very hearts we abhor and utterly deteſt this and all other Plots, Aſſociations, and Combinations whatſoever, that may be deſigned or attempted againſt Your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, Your Heirs and lawful Succeſſors, and the Government as now by Law eſtabliſhed in Church and State. And as heretofore engaged by our humble Addreſs and Abhorrence, all and every of us the preſent Subſcribers, do likewiſe give our aſſurance, that whenſoever Your Majeſty ſhall be graciouſly pleaſed to call a Parliament, we ſhall unanimouſly agree to make choice of ſuch Perſons as are of known Loyalty to Your Sacred Majeſty, and good affection to the eſtabliſhed Government. And that we will be ever ready, with our Lives and Fortunes to defend and protect Your Majeſties Royal Perſon, Your Heirs and lawful Succeſſors, and the Government as now by Law eſtabliſhed, and do heartily pray that Your Majeſties Reign over us, may be long and peaceable.

Subſcribed, and the Common Seal of this Corporation affixed, the thirtieth day of Auguſt, in the Five and thirtieth year of Your Majeſties Reign, Annoque Domini, 1683.

Vienna, September 16. The 12 inſtant this City, after a Siege of 60 days, was happily relieved; The Enemy (as you have been already informed at large) abandoning their Camp, their Baggage and Artillery, and retiring in great diſorder, and the Chriſtians, being wearied with the long duty they had been upon, and for that the night was at hand, not thinking fit to purſue them. The 13. the King of Poland, accompanied with Prince Alexander, his Son, and the Elector of Bavaria, came into the Town, having been received without the Gates by the Count de Staremberg, and the Chief Officers of the Gariſon, they went directly to the Chappel of Noſtre Dame de Loretto, and having performed their Devotions, viſited the Works, and then returned to their Camp. The ſame day the Count de Staremberg, went to pay his Duty to the Emperor at Cloſter Neubourg, and was received by his Imperial Majeſty with great demonſtrations of kindneſs and eſteem. The 14. the Emperor arrived here by Water, being received at his Landing by the Electors of Saxony and Bavaria, attended by their Guards, by the Count de Staremberg, the Magiſtrates, &c. the Gariſon was poſted on the Baſtions, as it was during the Siege; the Burghers were in Arms, and all the Cannon round the Town were thrice diſcharged; The Emperor viſited the Baſtions and other Works ruin'd during the Siege, and the ſeveral Retrenchments the Beſieged had made within the Town, and then went to St. Stephens Church where Te Deum was ſung; that done, his Imperial Majeſty went to the Arch Dukes Palace, his own not being in a condition to receive him; where his Imperial Majeſty gave publick Audience, and Dined with the 2 Electors; Towards Evening the Duke of Lorrain arrived here; He was received by his Imperial Majeſty in a moſt obliging manner, and had a long Conference with him. Yeſterday his Imperial Majeſty went to ſee the Army, which was encamped about 2 miles from this place, the 2 Wings reaching towards Eberſdorf and Laxembourg; His Imperial Majeſty came firſt to the Bavarian Troops, the Elector was at the head of them, and Saluted the Emperor with his Sword; and having performed his Complements, accompanied his Imperial Majeſty to the Poliſh Camp; The King of Poland had drawn up his Army in Battalia, and being attended with the Great Marſhal, and ſeveral Senators of Poland, advanced to meet the Emperor; they Saluted each other on horſeback, and after a ſhort interview the Emperor went to ſee the Poliſh Army, and afterwards returned hither; and the King of Poland decamped with his Army and marched to Wiſcha, and this day the Duke of Lorrain followed with the Emperors Forces. We hear every day more and more particulars of the Enemies Loſſes. The King of Poland has the Viſiers Rich Tent, and the Moneys found in it, which it's ſaid amount to a very great ſum, with the Grand Signiors Standard, adorned with precious Stones to a great value, &c. and we are aſſured that 120 pieces of Cannon have been taken, with vaſt quantities of Ammunition and Proviſions.

Vienna, Sept. 19. The Imperial and Poliſh Armies are marched into Hungary, to beſiege, as is ſaid, Newheuſel, or ſome other important place, and intend to paſs the Danube at Presbourg. The Elector of Saxony is returning home, his Troops having in order thereunto repaſſed the Danube; and this day the Emperor parted from hence for Lintz. A great many Priſoners are daily brought hither, who are employed in throwing down the Works the Enemy made during the Siege, in clearing the Town, &c. We have advice that the Grand Viſier was come with the remainder of his Army to Stoel-Weiſſenburg, and that he had cauſed the Baſſa of Buda, upon whom he lays the blame of their defeat, to be ſtrangled.

Lintz, Sept. 25. We have an account from Presbourg, that they were making there a Bridge over the Danube, which it was believed the Poliſh Army would paſs the 23; and that the Gariſon of Raab had fallen upon the Turks as they paſſed by that place in great diſorder, and had killed 500 of them.

Ratisbonne, Sept. 27. The Letters from Vienna of the 23 Inſtant, tell us, That on the 21 the Elector of Bavaria marched with his Troops, and thoſe of the Circle of Bavaria, for Hungary; That on the 22

part
